Women's Transitional Living Center, Inc. Celebrates International Women's Day Domestic Violence Survivors Recognized for their Strengths and Achievements

(March 2015) – March 8th is International Women's Day. This March the Women's Transitional Living Center, Inc. is celebrating the great achievements of women all over the world, especially the Domestic Violence survivors they serve. In addition to voicing this year's theme Make It Happen, #makeitpurple will be the organization's go to social media theme – purple symbolizing women's equality and Domestic Violence Awareness. In our Center WTLC will be honoring the women of today and history that have given us the vision of successful women.

“The survivor's we serve at WTLC are amazing. They are strong and inspiring despite the hardships they have endured from domestic violence, abuse and human exploitation. These are the women we need to recognize who have made the effort to change their lives for the better. We honor, empower, and restart the lives of these women survivors, and they in return, inspire us.” explains Gigi Tsontos, Executive Director of WTLC. Staff and Clients of the Women's Transitional Living Center, Inc. will be sharing stories, challenges, hardships and accomplishments with each other on March 8th in Celebration of International Women's Day.

WTLC is a non-profit services provider dedicated to helping individuals and families escape the depths of domestic violence and exploitation. If you are or someone you know is the victim of abuse contact our 24 hour hotline at 877-531-5522 or check out our website at www.wtlc.org.
