ANNUAL FOOD DRIVE SUPPORTS VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
Pacific Western Bank hosts a food drive to support WTLC

January 28, 2016 – Next month, Pacific Western Bank will be hosting their Annual Food Drive to support Women’s Transitional Living Center, Inc. Held each year, this important event raises money and canned food to support the survivors and children who live in our shelter as they transition to safety and overcome trauma. Donations will be accepted at the following locations between February 1st and 29th:

- Brea: 130 South State College Blvd., Brea, CA 92821
- Huntington Beach: 19950 Beach Blvd., Huntington Beach, CA 92648
- Irvine: 7575 Irvine Center Drive, Ste. 250, Irvine, CA 92618
- Dana Point: 34180 Pacific Coast Highway, Dana Point, CA 92629
- Newport Beach: 895 Dove Street Suite 100, Newport Beach, CA 92660
- Anaheim: 101 E Lincoln Ave Ste. 125, Anaheim, CA 92805

“We are so grateful to Pacific Western Bank for being a strong and active supporter of WTLC. Their dedication to our mission to end domestic violence and exploitation has allowed us to serve nutritious meals and implement effective support services to our residents” said Gigi Tsontos, Executive Director of WTLC.

About WTLC

WTLC is a non-profit organization dedicated to helping individuals and families escape the depths of domestic violence and exploration by providing the tools and resources to build self-esteem and empower people for independent living. WTLC is the oldest domestic violence shelter in Orange County, and is celebrating 40 years of service in 2016.
